The Sunshine State's Tax "Holiday"

It is always a breath of fresh air to read about legislators creating taxpayer goodwill as well as promoting a good cause. From August 4 through August 13, 2007, Florida will have a tax "holiday" on certain back-to-school items. This is the seventh such tax holiday for Florida.

Kids may not be thinking about school this time of year, but parents always have their kids' schooling on their minds. Check out the online sunshine.
